

Reserves Management

In 1999, Hong Kong's Exchange Fund – which holds the assets to safeguard the exchange rate – saw continued growth and a number of strategic changes to its investment strategy and risk management framework. The launch of the Tracker Fund in November was the first step in the disposal of part of the Hong Kong equity portfolio purchased by the Government in August 1998.

16:45