Latest Visitor Arrangement for the HKMA Information Centre

Due to the large number of visitors to the HKMA Information Centre recently, a new visitor arrangement has been put in place to prevent overcrowding and ensure visitor safety. Visits will now be divided into 45-minute sessions, with a limited number of visitor quota available for each session.

The details of the visiting sessions are as follows:

(Monday -Friday)

3	11:30 - 12:15
4	12:30 - 13:15
5	13:30 - 14:15
6	14:30 - 15:15
7	15:30 - 16:15
8	16:30 - 17:15
9	17:15 - 18:00 (No entry 20 minutes before closing)

(Saturday)

1	10:00 - 10:45
2	10:45 - 11:30
3	11:30 - 12:15
4	12:15 - 13:00 (No entry 20 minutes before closing)

* Closed on Sundays and public holidays

The quota for each visiting session will be allocated on a first-come-first-served basis. When the quota for a visiting session is fully utilised, the quota for the next session will be distributed. Visitors need to queue and register at the reception counter in the HKMA lobby on the ground floor of Two International Finance Centre, presenting an identity document with their photo and name to obtain the session quota.

The specific visitor arrangement may be adjusted based on the actual situation, and visitors should follow the instructions of the on-site staff when queuing to enter. The Centre also recommends that visitors call the Centre hotline at 2878 1111 before coming to inquire about the entry situation and arrangements.
