

HKMA

About the Financial Stability Surveillance (FSS) Division of the HKMA

The objective of the FSS Division is to delineate and identify macro trends and financial market developments that could have impact on financial stability. FSS is a Division in the Monetary Management Department of the HKMA.

The FSS Division uses a combination of market intelligence and quantitative analysis to assess potential financial stability risks facing Hong Kong, paying close attention to developments involving credit expansion / leverage / unregulated shadow financial activities.

Name of Department(s) offering internship positions:

Financial Stability Surveillance Division

Internship Duration: (12) months

Internship Period: (7) / 2021 – (6) / 2022

Intern's Job Description

Job Duties:

- Provide support in planning and developing the Granular Data Reporting (GDR) project or other projects in the Financial Stability Surveillance Division
- Liaise with internal and external stakeholders to execute plans and resolve issues
- Develop small programming scripts and dashboards for data cleansing, visualisation and analysis
- Conduct research on topics related to Big Data Analytics and financial products
- Assist in producing reports and presentations for internal and external use

Requirements:

- (A) Education Background:
  - Undergraduate students or postgraduate students
- (B) Discipline Preferred:
  - Economics, Finance, Statistics, Data Science, Computer Science or other quantitative subjects
- (C) Technical Skills:
  - Familiarity with analytical and data visualisation tools such as Tableau, R, Python an advantage
- (D) Language Proficiency:
  - Good command of both written and spoken English and Chinese. Proficiency in Putonghua an advantage
- (E) Others:
  - Basic knowledge in Finance and the banking industry
  - Good interpersonal skills with ability to prioritise, multitask and follow established procedures to attain positive results

Enquiry email (if any):