Financial Review

The consolidated profit after tax of the HKMC was HK$604 million in 2016, representing a decrease of HK$121 million or 16.7%, compared with 2015. Return on shareholders' equity was 6.8% (2015: 8.1%). The reductions in profitability were mainly due to rundown in the loan portfolio and decrease in mortgage insurance premium income, partly offset by increase in disposal gain and dividend income from investments.

In 2016, the net interest income was HK$491 million (2015: HK$590 million) and the net interest margin of the average interest-earning assets was 1.0% (2015: 1.2%).

New loans drawn down under the MIP increased from HK$17.2 billion to HK$24.6 billion in 2016. The risk-in-force borne for the MIP by the HKMC was HK$14.1 billion (2015: HK$11.3 billion). Net mortgage insurance premiums earned, after income amortisation, commission expenses and provision was HK$190 million (2015: HK$289 million).

Other income was HK$213 million (2015: HK$143 million), which mainly included gain on disposal of investments of HK$160 million, dividend income of HK$83 million, and an exchange loss of HK$21 million primarily due to the effect of renminbi volatility in deposits and high-grade debt investments.

The HKMC continued to maintain stringent controls on operating expenses. Total operating expenses were HK$277 million, HK$10 million up from 2015. Amid the reduction in operating income coupled with resources devoted to support policy initiatives, the cost-to-income ratio increased to 30.8% in 2016 from 25.7% in 2015.

Having considered the capital requirements for business development, no dividend was declared for 2016. As at 31 December 2016, the capital adequacy ratio remained solid at 21.3%, well above the minimum requirement of 8% stipulated by the Financial Secretary.
