Hong Kong Monetary Authority
"HKMA Know-How in 2 Minutes" A.I. Animated Video Series

Video 1 – The Great Money Reveal

SUPER: The Great Money Reveal

Sam: Wow! Ice cream!
Uncle, I want a strawberry ice cream

Boss: Kid, it seems you haven't paid yet!

Sam: Money? What is money?

Karina: Boss, I am sorry
Sam is our friend
He doesn't know what money is!

Lucas: It seems that we need to explain the concept of money to Sam

Sam: Huh?

Karina: Money can be used to buy all sort of things we need and want and services
You can save it to achieve your dreams or donate it to help people in need

Sam: So, what does money look like?

Lucas: Money comes in the form of banknotes and coins and digital payments
This time, let's focus on the money we can see and touch Look! Banknotes come in 10 dollars, 20 dollars, 50 dollars 100 dollars, 500 dollars, and 1000 dollars

Karina: And coins come in 10 cents, 20 cents, 50 cents
1 dollar, 2 dollars, 5 dollars, and 10 dollars

Lucas: And do you know only the 10-dollar banknotes and all coins are issued by the Government
The other banknotes are issued by the three note-issuing banks authorised by the Hong Kong Monetary Authority (HKMA) These banknotes have the latest security features like the moving rings on the pattern in the top right corner and the vertical metallic thread to prevent fraudsters from making counterfeit notes to cheat others

Sam: Wow!

Karina: Wait, damaged banknotes
might be refused by merchants
When a banknote is worn out we can go to a bank to exchange for a new one, if necessary Let's pay with my coins!

Sam: These coins are so heavy!

Lucas: Look, there is an HKMA Coin Cart that helps to exchange coins for banknotes or upload the amount of counted coins to do-do cards or e-wallets
You can also choose to donate them for charity

Sam: Wow! That's really convenient!
Thank you, Karina and Lucas
Uncle, I'm sorry
I will pay you now

Boss: No problem

Sam, Karina, Lucas: Unlocking Financial Secrets with the HKMA from an Early Age!

SUPER: Hong Kong Monetary Authority Logo