

CCB (Asia) Simple Business Account – Empowering SMEs to Launch Businesses Efficiently

China Construction Bank (Asia) (“CCB (Asia)”) has specially designed Simple Business Account for small and medium enterprises (SMEs) and startups. This account offers a streamlined onboarding process and essential banking tools to empower businesses to grow and expand efficiently in Hong Kong and even globally. CCB (Asia) Simple Business Account provides flexible financial solutions to meet SMEs’ daily operational needs and support their long-term business expansion.

Key features for Simple Business Account:

Rapid account opening: Account opening can be processed swiftly within 1 working day¹ at the soonest, significantly enhancing business efficiency.

Simplified requirements: Submission of business proof² is exempted with flexibility in entry barriers.

Digital convenience: Manage accounts anytime via online or mobile banking for seamless transactions.

Core banking services: Access deposits, transfers, and foreign exchange services to meet daily operation needs and provide a strong banking support for future growth.

With its efficient and adaptable approach, CCB (Asia)’s Simple Business Account delivers a comprehensive financial solution for SMEs and startups, helping them establish a strong presence in Hong Kong and connect with international markets. Through a simplified process, robust digital tools, and essential banking services, CCB (Asia) Simple Business Account is your trusted solution for growth.

For details, please visit CCB (Asia)’s official website <https://www.asia.ccb.com> or contact service hotline at + 852 2903 8366.

Remarks:

1. The following eligibility and conditions must be met: Only applicable to local sole proprietorships, partnerships and single-layer limited companies. Relevant parties from applicant companies must be holders of a Hong Kong permanent Identity Card. The required time for opening an account is within one working day at the soonest from the date the customer successfully makes an appointment with the Bank for document signing and the Bank confirms receipt of all required documents submitted by the customer. Working days refer to Monday to Friday (excluding public holidays). The time required to open an account will vary according to individual circumstances. The Bank has absolute discretion to refuse any online account opening application and reserves the right to amend the eligibility requirements for online account opening at any time without reason. The Bank reserves the right to final approvals. In case of any disputes, the Bank reserves the right of final decision.
2. The exemption of business proof is subject to the Bank.