

Bank of Communications (Hong Kong) Limited - Launch of “Simple Bank Accounts”

Bank of Communications (Hong Kong) Limited has launched a new service: “Simple Bank Account”, specifically designed for newly established companies or “start-ups” with a single-layer structure, where both the operation and registered address are in Hong Kong. This service allows an easier and faster account opening procedure, enabling these businesses to enjoy convenient banking services.

The services provided by “Simple Bank Account” include:

- Savings, Current and Fixed Deposit Accounts
- Local fund transfer services (excluding inward and outward remittance services involving cross-border funds transfer)
- A Simplified account opening procedure, with exemption from providing business proof documents

Please visit any of our outlets during business hours (Monday to Friday from 9:00am to 5:00pm and Saturday from 9:00am to 1:00pm) to handle the account opening procedures and counter services for “Simple Bank Account” .

For more details about “Simple Bank Account”, please contact our Customer Services Hotline at (852) 223 95559 during office hours.