

Hong Kong Monetary Authority
“Fact Chat with HKMA MTs ft. Do Do Cheng” Video Series

Graduates Sharing Video

- Super:
- Do Do Cheng: If you wish to be a member of the elite team at the HKMA what abilities and qualities should you have?
We have invited a group of Manager Trainee graduates to share their journey of achievements
- Super: Jack Lee
2020 intake
Associate Director
Exchange Fund Investment Office
- Jack Lee: Working at the HKMA, which is the central banking institution brings us a lot of competitive advantages Upon becoming a Manager Trainee there are many opportunities to deal with different people and tasks that other fields of work cannot offer
All these have substantial benefits to my career development
- Super: Become knowledgeable of the financial market through work diversity
- Jack Lee: The various tasks performed keep the mind of Manager Trainees fresh and bright
- Super: Teresa Lin
2019 intake
Adviser
Bank for International Settlements Innovation Hub
- Teresa Lin: The financial industry is one of the most important pillars of Hong Kong’s economy
I applied for the Manager Trainee position because I wished to contribute to the financial industry
The Manager Trainee Programme is very broad
It enables you to be trained in various departments so as to get a comprehensive understanding about the operations of the HKMA
- Super: Job rotation enriches understanding of the HKMA’s functions
- Super: Tracy Leung
2020 intake
Manager
Monetary Management Department
- Tracy Leung: Participating in different projects at the HKMA has benefited me a lot

The most impressive project was my involvement in the distribution of consumption vouchers

Super: Participate in key financial projects essential for the public

Tracy Leung: Witnessing the Consumption Voucher Scheme benefiting the general public and digital payment becoming even more popular makes me so happy and satisfied

Super: Yoyo Wong
2020 intake
Manager
Banking Conduct Department

Yoyo Wong: One time, I participated in a brainstorming session regarding the HKMA's Three Year Plan with some other Manager Trainees I never thought that as a Manager Trainee I would have the opportunity to express my opinions at such an important event

Super: Value talents and appreciate new ideas

Yoyo Wong: It made me realise that the HKMA values the views of the young generation and gives us a lot of opportunities to participate and contribute

Super: Eric Ko
2021 intake
Manager Trainee
Corporate Services Department

Eric Ko: The Manager Trainee Programme is the starting point of your career Your future career path and whether you can gain job satisfaction depends a lot on your attitude It is also determined by whether you are interested in and passionate about your work
You have to be curious to learn more about the job

Super: Passion and curiosity to learn

Super: Steven Yu
2017 intake
Manager
External Department

Steven Yu: I remember when I attended the HKMA's recruitment talk some Manager Trainee graduates mentioned that we should not expect to get rich overnight for working at the HKMA

But more importantly, you have to be clear about whether you wish to contribute to the Hong Kong society and if this job is really suitable for you

Super: Join the HKMA to contribute to society

Steven Yu: If you think you are qualified you are most welcome to join us and enrol in the HKMA Manager Trainee Programme

Do Do Cheng: After listening to the sharing of the Manager Trainee graduates have you gained a deeper understanding about the work of the Manager Trainees? If you think you have the potential and the goal to be a member of the elite team at the HKMA you should take the first step Please pay attention to the application details and deadline If you want to know more please visit the HKMA's Facebook page or YouTube channel to watch the full version of my interviews with the Manager Trainees

Super: Watch the full interview now Facebook Logo
YouTube Logo
Hong Kong Monetary Authority